Public Forum

Christine Somales, 808 West Main Street, stated that the yellow house is gone and thanked council.

Charles Martin, 1045 Coulter Avenue, asked if there was any progress on the intersection of Coulter Avenue and Watt Street.

Councilwoman O'Brien stated that the solicitor is working on it and they will be sending letters out soon.

Terry Necciai, 400 Meade Street, representing the Main Street Program, thanked everyone for all that has been done for the two buildings affected by the water main break, there was a steering committee meeting for the Active Transportation Program, he will be reporting to the PA Downtown Center with the City's progress, and he was stopped by a former resident Randy Walters from Arizona who is on the phone and would like to speak.

Randy Walters, Chandler Arizona, stated that the City needed a designation and suggests it be the kindest City in America. This could be done by a proclamation which could be presented to the City.

Mayor Garry thanked Mr. Walters for his suggestion and council will discuss it further.

Tobias Provan, 507 Fourth Street, thanked Laura Magone from the Historical Society for raising monies for the businesses affected by the water main break. He was amazed by the Fire Department with their quick response and helping the businesses and pumping water out of the basement.
